PART 3. READING COMPREHENSION (10 marks)

Read the passage and answer Questions 1-10.

A busy but balanced student life

Leo is a university student who lives in campus accommodation with two housemates. His room is small but he likes it because there is a comfortable bed, a desk near the window and several posters on the wall. There is also superfast Wi-Fi, which he uses when he studies or chats to his classmates. The kitchen and bathroom are shared but Leo does not mind. His housemates are friendly and they often help each other with the housework. There is a fridge and a freezer in the kitchen, and Leo keeps some fruit and drinks there. He also has a few books and a lamp on his desk.

On weekdays, Leo usually gets up at 6:30. He has breakfast in the kitchen and catches the bus to campus. His classes normally start at 8:00. After class, he often studies in the library and does some homework before going home. In the evening, he usually relaxes with his housemates. They sometimes cook dinner together, and Leo often does the washing up. He does not watch much TV because he likes to keep some time for his hobbies. On Saturday morning, he tidies up his room, does the laundryand makes his bed. He says that doing these small jobs helps him feel ready for the new week.

Leo has several hobbies. He enjoys cycling, hiking and swimming because these activities help him get fit. He also plays badminton with his friends at the sports centre every Saturday afternoon. He likes team sports too, but he is more interested in activities that he can do with a few friends. Today, however, he is not playing badminton. He is preparing for a small school event and is helping his friends organise it. Next weekend, he is meeting them again to play. He is also planning to try canoeing with his housemates because none of them has done it before.

Leo also loves travelling. Last year, he went on a city break with his sister. They visited local attractions, saw famous buildings, and went on a cultural visit to a museum. They also tried traditional food at a small local restaurant. Since then, Leo has visited two more cities, so he has learned that he prefers short trips to busy places rather than long beach holidays. He has never stayed with a host family, but he would like to try a language exchange one day. He thinks it would be a good way to practise English and learn more about everyday life in another country. He has already made a list of places he wants to visit, and he hopes to go on another trip next summer.
