

Unit 7 Test – Vocabulary

A Circle the words that best complete the sentences.

(8 x 1 = 8)

- The criminal was taken to the scene of the crime and made to exactly what had happened.
a. reconstruct c. retouch
b. derive d. chronicle
- I find ancient history fascinating and am quite by it.
a. baffled c. intrigued
b. preserved d. revolted
- Historians do not consider this of the battle to be accurate.
a. series c. feature
b. account d. revelation
- Queen Victoria ruled England until she died at the age of 82, making hers one of the longest in history.
a. episodes c. conquests
b. expeditions d. reigns
- The article has given me plenty of into the situation.
a. clarity c. expertise
b. rapport d. insight
- There is an number of stars in the sky.
a. obscure c. infamous
b. infinite d. excessive
- I am quite in French, although I don't read the language very well.
a. fluent c. bilingual
b. intimate d. meticulous
- Her appearance has been completely by plastic surgery.
a. derived c. transformed
b. mistreated d. revealed

B Add two particles to complete the three-word phrasal verb in each sentence.

(12 x 2 = 24)

- It is believed that this pottery fragment dates the fifth century BC.
- You'll have to face the fact that you can't always have things your way.
- The forecast says that we are some rough weather.
- What exactly led your decision to emigrate to Australia?
- Rita always manages to get doing the washing-up.
- I've come some difficult problems while doing this project.
- Her constant criticism is eating my self-confidence.
- She's reading Italian art in preparation for her trip.
- I believe that her theory ties the research I've been doing.
- Ellen is looking for extra work because she can't get her salary.
- Getting good marks seems to boil having efficient study habits.
- It seems as though she is always trying to measure her father's expectations.

C Replace the words in bold in the sentences below with the words that have similar meanings.

There are three extra words.

(10 x 2 = 20)

beverages essentially infamous ransom ultimately unearth voyage bombard extraordinary profoundly record uncharted version

- Scientists were unable to explain the highly unusual phenomenon.
- He was deeply sorry for what he had done.
- Guy Burgess was one of the notorious Cambridge Four spies during World War II.
- In the end, the entire crop was destroyed by the drought.
- They are serving alcoholic drinks at the reception.
- I feel I'm going into unfamiliar waters because I know nothing about that topic.
- I'm going to try to write down my dreams first thing every morning.
- They have just returned from a lengthy journey across the Pacific Ocean.
- Archaeologists are hoping to find the ancient temple buried underground.
- Would you like to give us your view of the events?