

TASK 1: Let's see what's happening at the park today! Read the story below about a typical weekend, then DRAG AND DROP the pictures next to the paragraph that matches the actions.

DRAG AND DROP!

A SATURDAY AT PARQUE DE LA CIUDAD

It is Saturday afternoon, and the Park in La Rioja is full of people. The sun is shining, and many teenagers are enjoying the afternoon with their friends.

Valentín and Juan Pablo are walking near the lake. They are talking and laughing about their school week. Sofia is sitting under a tree, and she is reading a book. Her friend Martina is listening to music, but she isn't reading. She is taking photos of the beautiful park.

Near the sports area, Tomás and Joaquín are playing football. They are running, passing the ball, and having fun. A little boy is riding his bike, while his mother is watching him. Some children are playing in the playground, and their parents are sitting on the grass.

At the food area, two friends are having some snacks. They aren't eating fast food. They are sharing some sandwiches and drinking water.

Suddenly, Sofia sees Juan Pablo and asks, "Are you playing football?"
"No, we aren't," he answers. "We are walking around the park."
"Is Valentín taking photos?" Sofia asks.
"No, he isn't. He is talking to Martina."
Everyone is doing something different, but they are enjoying the beautiful afternoon at Parque de la Ciudad.
