PART 4 - READING 10 points

🎧 A NEW LIFE IN A NEW CITY

Maya is sixteen and she lives in a small town with her parents. She has got long straight brown hair and green eyes. She usually wears comfortable clothes and spends a lot of time with her friends.

Maya loves music and she plays the guitar in a small band. The band practises every Saturday, and they sometimes play at local events.

This month, however, Maya is doing something different. She is staying with her aunt in London because her parents are on holiday. She is going to a new school for three weeks.

At first, Maya feels a little nervous. The school is much bigger than her school at home. There are hundreds of students, and she doesn't know many people yet. But she is enjoying the experience. She is making new friends and learning a lot about the city.

This weekend, Maya is meeting some new friends. They are going to a music festival together. Maya says she is excited because she loves live music.
