

An orchestra

An orchestra is a big group of people who _____ (play) music together. They use many different instruments like violins, trumpets, and drums.

In an orchestra, people play their instruments together to make music. The conductor is a person who _____ (help) the orchestra. They usually _____ (move) a stick called a baton to show when and how to play. The orchestra can play music from movies, songs, and big music pieces called symphonies.

Right now, the orchestra _____ (practice) for a big show. The violin players _____ (play) their violins. The drum player _____ (play) the drums. The musicians _____ (work) very hard. They _____ (play) their instruments to make the music sound great for the show.

So, an orchestra is like a team. Everybody _____ (have) a job to do. They all _____ (work) together to make beautiful music. They always _____ (do) their best to make lovely music for us all to enjoy.