

DEFINING RELATIVE CLAUSES

1) Choose the correct relative pronoun:

- A laboratory is a place scientists do experiments.
- I'm not one of those people distrust all politicians.
- The 1990s was the period the Internet was created.
- This is the building I worked in 1987.
- That is the problem I told you it would happen.
- The dishwasher we bought last year doesn't work.
- Mother's Day is the day people buy flowers.
- This machine has a button is pushed and you get a coin.

2) Match the sentences:

- | | |
|---|---|
| a. Steve Jobs was a man | when the "computer touring" was invented |
| b. Quebec is the city | which first appeared in a James Bond film |
| c. 1936 is the year | who was the executive president of Apple |
| d. The Calypso was an underwater camera | that discovered DNA |
| e. Rosalind Franklin was the woman | where the snowmobile was invented |

3) Write the correct relative pronoun:

- 1804 was the year the first steam-powered train appeared.
- The man created the game of basketball was a teacher.
- The Eiffel Tower is a place many people jumped to death.
- "Karaoke" is a Japanese word means "empty orchestra".
- I never travel to places it's boiling hot.
- I don't like the food my grandmother makes.
- She's got a cousin invents lots of things.
- Where is there a quiet place we can talk?
- Winter is a season there is a lot of rain.

4) Choose the correct option:

which when who

where which when

that
who
where

when
that where

LISTS