

The Goose with the Golden Eggs

Once there was a poor farmer. He didn't have any money and he was hungry all the time. One day He discovered a special goose on his farm. The goose was fat with lots of white feathers. Every day it laid a golden egg. The egg was beautiful and shiny, and the farmer was very happy. The farmer sold the eggs and became rich, He had food and warm house, and he didn't have to work on his farm anymore. But he was very greedy. He didn't want to wait for just one egg each day. He want all the golden eggs at once. The farmer opened the goose's mouth. He reached deep inside the goose to find more golden eggs , but there weren't any. After that, the goose never laid another egg.

I. Read the story and choose True(T) or False(F)

1. The farmer was always hungry before he found the special goose. (True / False)
2. The goose laid two golden eggs every day. (True / False)
3. The farmer became rich by selling the golden eggs. (True / False)
4. The farmer was patient and happy to wait for one egg each day. (True / False)
5. The farmer found many golden eggs inside the goose's mouth. (True / False)

II. Arrange the following sentences in order to make a good summary.

- a. A poor and hungry farmer discovered a special goose on his farm that laid a golden egg every day.
- b. Unfortunately, there were no more eggs inside, and the goose never laid another golden egg again.
- c. However, he grew greedy and didn't want to wait for just one egg each day.
- d. The farmer sold the golden eggs and became very rich with plenty of food and a warm house.
- e. The farmer reached deep inside the goose's mouth to find all the golden eggs at once .

1
2
3
4
5	