3. READING.

A. Read about the house. Mark each statement TRUE or FALSE.

I live in a house with a large garden. There's also a nice park nearby. There are six rooms in all. Downstairs there is a living room, a dining room, and a kitchen. My house has two bedrooms and a small office upstairs. All the rooms in the house have beautiful windows.

The living room has a brown sofa, two large chairs, two bookcases, three lamps, and a TV. There's a large table in the dining room, with eight chairs for friends. The kitchen has twelve cabinets.

Upstairs, my bedroom has a large bed, a tall dresser, a green rug, and two mirrors. There's a nice closet in my bedroom, but the other bedroom has a small one. The office has a large desk, a computer, and a printer. There are also two bathrooms in my house—a small one with a toilet downstairs, and a large one with a bathtub and shower upstairs. I love my house.

B. Read about David's day. Then choose the correct answer.

Today is Monday. The weather is cold. David is a writer. He works at home. Today he's getting up early because he's making lunch for his four children before school. He's also making breakfast for his wife, Laura. Laura's going to work at 8:00, and she needs breakfast early, too. David and Laura give the children their warm sweaters and jackets and their lunches for school. After Laura goes to work and the children go to school, David does all his Monday chores: he does the laundry, takes out Saturday and Sunday's garbage, and goes shopping. David does his chores fast, because today he's starting work on a new book. The book is about his life.
