LIVEWORKSHEETS

Many young people today enjoy spending their free time on various hobbies. For example, Tom, a nineteen-year-old student from London, spends most of his weekends outdoors. He is very athletic and loves playing sports. On Saturday mornings, he usually gets up early to play football with his local team. In the afternoon, he often goes cycling in the park near his house or plays tennis with his brother. Tom says that doing sports helps him stay healthy and reduces stress after hard study days at college.

However, Tom cannot play golf because he thinks it is quite expensive and boring. His sister, Emily, does not like athletic activities at all. She is an artistic person. In her leisure time, Emily enjoys drawing pictures, playing the guitar, and reading books. She also likes surfing the internet to download her favorite music. On Sundays, Tom and Emily usually stay at home with their parents and have a big dinner together.
