

YEAR 6 CEFR ENGLISH WORKSHEET

Narrative Writing from Emojis

A better writer today!

Instructions:

1. Study the emojis carefully and think about the story.
2. Write in the past tense.
3. Use sequence and linking words to organise your ideas.
4. Add details, actions and feelings to make your story interesting.
5. Check your grammar, spelling and punctuation before you finish.

Part 1: Guided Narrative Writing

Study the emojis below. Then write a short narrative of 60–80 words. Answer the guiding questions before you write.

? Guiding Questions

1. Where did the pupil go?
2. What problem happened?
3. Who helped the pupil?
4. How did the pupil feel in the end?

Write your paragraph here:

Part 2: Independent Narrative Essay

Study the emojis below. Then write a narrative essay of 100–120 words. Give your story a suitable title. Your essay should have a beginning, a problem and a good ending.

Planning Your Essay

Title: _____
Characters: _____
Setting: _____
Problem: _____
Ending: _____

Write your essay here:

