Name: _____

BASIC LONDON Institute

Emma _____ (WORK) for a small marketing company in Buenos Aires. She usually _____ (START) work at 9 a.m. and _____ (HAVE) lunch with her colleagues around 1 p.m. She _____ (LIKE) her job because she _____ (MEET) different clients and _____ (LEARN) something new every week.

Last month, Emma _____ (RECEIVE) an important email from a company in Brazil. They _____ (OFFER) her the opportunity to work on an international project. At first, she _____ (FEEL) nervous because she _____ (NOT / HAVE) much experience with international clients. However, she _____ (ACCEPT) the offer and _____ (START) working on the project a few days later.

Now, Emma _____ (WORK) on the final presentation. She _____ (HAVE) several meetings with the Brazilian team, and she _____ (PREPARE) different ideas for the client. Her manager _____ (BE) very happy with her work and _____ (GIVE) her more responsibilities.

Next month, Emma _____ (TRAVEL) to São Paulo for an important meeting. She _____ (MEET) the clients in person and _____ (PRESENT) the final project. She thinks the trip _____ (BE) a great opportunity for her career. After the meeting, she _____ (STAY) in Brazil for a few more days because she _____ (WANT) to visit the city.

COMPARATIVE AND SUPERLATIVE

1. Working from home is _____ than working in an office. (COMFORTABLE)
2. This is _____ restaurant in the neighborhood. (EXPENSIVE)
3. My new job is _____ than my previous job. (STRESSFUL)
4. Buenos Aires is _____ city in Argentina. (BIG)
5. Traveling by plane is _____ than traveling by bus. (FAST)
6. This hotel is _____ than the one we stayed at last year. (MODERN)
7. Monday is _____ day of the week for me. (BUSY)
8. Learning English is _____ than I expected. (EASY)
9. This is _____ presentation I have ever given. (IMPORTANT)
10. My new apartment is _____ to my workplace than my old apartment. (CLOSE)

LIVEWORKSHEETS