

4 Grammar in context Present Continuous for Future Arrangements

You can use the present continuous to talk about plans/arrangements for the future.

- Ali is going to the beach on Saturday.
- Kevin is working on his project on Friday.

Look at the table and write sentences about their future arrangements.

|       | Sunday              | Monday          | Tuesday       | Wednesday | Thursday      | Friday                      | Saturday      |
|-------|---------------------|-----------------|---------------|-----------|---------------|-----------------------------|---------------|
| Omar  |                     | See the dentist |               |           | Meet a friend | Work on the English project | Play football |
| Fatma | Go to the gymnasium |                 | Visit grandma |           | Fly to Dubai  |                             |               |

1. Fatma is going to the gym on Sunday.

2. ....

3. ....

4. ....