

In each sentence below, four words or phrases are marked (A), (B), (C), and (D). Identify the ONE underlined part that contains a grammatical error. Circle your answer and write a correction on top of the wrong word / phrase.

1. The list of new students are on the teacher's table today.
A B C D
2. Neither John nor his brothers was at the school clinic yesterday.
A B C D
3. The teacher, together with her students, are in the computer lab.
A B C D
4. Everyone in the two classes know the correct answer.
A B C D
5. The police is searching for the lost wallet in the park.
A B C D
6. Mathematics are my brother's favourite subject at school.
A B C D
7. Ten dollars are too expensive for a simple cup of coffee.
A B C D
8. The poor needs our help during this difficult time.
A B C D
9. The number of people waiting for the bus have increased today.
A B C D
10. Neither of the two boys have finished their lunch.
A B C D