

GRAMMAR

Study the table below. (page 85)

will / won't	Use will/won't to make prediction about the future.	My son will be a doctor one day. She won't finish her homework.
going to	a) Use going to to talk about future plans and intentions.	She's going to visit Japan next month.
	b) Use going to to make a prediction based on something we can see or hear right now.	Look! He's going to jump out of the car!

Write the correct answers.

going to

will

1	He's see my brother tomorrow.
2	I bet she receive the award soon.
3	Maryam be a good teacher one day.
4	I'm to buy the books this Saturday.
5	The car is to hit the tree!

2. Complete the dialogue with the correct form of will or going to. (page 85)

John	In the future, I think music 1) will sound (sound) completely different. There 2) (not be) any musical instruments. We 3) (use) computers to make music.
Tracey	I don't agree! I love the sound of different instruments. I 4) (learn) to play lots of instruments. I 5) (write) songs with my best friend and we 6) (perform) for our families and friends.
Alex	Look! The lights are going down. The musicians are on the stage. The (start) to play. The (sing) songs. The (play) instruments. The (dance) on the stage.

LIVEWORKSHEETS