A Robbery

Last Sunday, David was burning the midnight oil because there would be a test the next day. Suddenly, he heard a strange noise, but he did not know where it came from. Just when he was about to continue his revision, he heard the noise again. He stood up and looked out of the window. He was totally in shock because he saw a man climbing over the gate of his neighbour's house.

David knew that his neighbour was not at home because he had gone to Pulau Tioman for a holiday. David was very nervous, so he sat down and tried to calm himself down. After a while, he ran to his parents' bedroom and woke them up. Then, he told his parents about what he saw. They got out of bed and called the police immediately.

The police arrived in a few minutes. They surrounded the house to make sure that the burglar couldn't escape. Finally, the burglar was caught. When David's neighbour came back, he thanked him for his quick action. He didn't lose anything except that he had to replace a broken lock.

10. Why did David stay up late?
A He had to revise for the test.
B He was afraid of sleeping alone.
C His family members were still awake.
11. Where did the noise come from?
A David's house
B The window of David's house
C The house of David's neighbour
12. Why was David's neighbour not at home?
A He was away on holiday.
B He didn't come home that night.
C He went to Pulau Tioman to work.
13. Who called the police?
A David
B David's parents
C David's neighbour
14. From this text, we know that David was _____.
A a filial son
B a lazy pupil
C a helpful neighbour

PART 4Questions 15 to 20

Read the texts about the strange things faced by three different people (A, B and C) carefully. For each question, choose the correct person (A, B or C) who fits the description. Write the correct answer in the space provided.

A	Johnny A strange thing happened recently. Johnny found a treasure map. He asked for his brother's help. Then, guess what... they followed the map to a tunnel. There was light at the end of the dark tunnel. They believed that it was the shine of gold bars! So, they rushed into the tunnel. To their great disappointment, the light was actually from a torch! There was a note in the trunk, saying that the pirates had taken the treasure away. They were tricked!
B	Kelly A strange thing happened yesterday. It was the last day of Kelly's trip. While she was looking for a present for her friend, she came across a beautiful statue in a market and was attracted to it. The seller told her that the statue was carved out of a single piece of stone. Without second thoughts, Kelly bought the statue and put it in her bag. Then, guess what... when Kelly opened her bag in the hotel room, the statue was not what it was minutes ago! You won't believe it but the statue actually broke into small pieces in her bag! How did it happen?
C	Jenny A strange thing happened last night. Jenny came out of a bank, went into the station and got on a monorail. She withdrew a few thousand ringgit from the ATM. When the monorail arrived at her destination, she stood up and walked to the door. Just when she about to step out of the train, a man snatched her handbag and ran away. Before she could shout for help, the man bumped into a glass door and broke the glass. He fell on the pieces of broken glass and fainted. The strangest thing was the cash wasn't in the handbag but in her pocket, though she remembered putting it in the handbag!
