

VOCABULARY

No.	Word	Definition
1		To practise something before a performance or event.
2		A sudden, dangerous situation that needs quick action.
3		Something done to fool someone or a clever way to do something.
4		A person who works in someone's house, doing jobs such as cleaning or cooking.
5		Things that belong to someone.
6		A person who teaches someone how to do something.
7		The natural things we see in a place, such as mountains, trees and rivers.
8		A very large and expensive house.
9		Secretly and illegally taking goods into or out of a country.
10		People who buy and sell things.
11		Making someone feel happy and satisfied because something is worth doing.
12		Made dirty or harmful by waste, chemicals or other dangerous substances.
13		Collected crops, fruits or vegetables when they are ready.
14		A long, thick thread made from wool or other materials, used for knitting or weaving.
15		Something that has been made or invented, or the act of making something new.