A VISIT TO THE FUTURE

Last Friday, Holly's class had a special lesson about the future. Their teacher showed them pictures of different places and asked them to imagine a city in the year 2100.

In the first picture, they saw a huge (0) stadium where thousands of people could watch sports. Next, the teacher showed them a very tall (1) _____ with hundreds of windows. Holly thought it looked amazing.

Then the class learned about travelling in the future. Scientists might build a large (2) _____ that could carry families to another planet. They could also launch a fast (3) _____ to send machines far into space.

After that, the teacher showed the children a picture of the sea. She explained that people might build special homes under the (4) _____ one day. Holly thought it would be exciting to live there.

Finally, the children talked about nature in the future. They hoped people would protect every (5) _____ so that many trees could continue to grow and provide homes for wild animals.

At the end of the lesson, Holly drew a picture of her own future city. She wanted to live in a tall building and travel into space one day.
