

1 Complete the puzzle. The pictures are the clues.

Across ➤

Down ▼

2 Match each word to its definition.

- a. ceremony to bury a body
- b. hundreds of years
- c. without confidence
- d. change the appearance of a room
- e. You don't tell other people this.
- f. horrible

1. timidly

6. secret

3. cruel

5. centuries

2. redecorate

4. funeral

3 Write the letter of the correct person next to each question.

Who ...

- 1. came to change Harry's room into a TV room?
- 2. thanked the forensic scientists?
- 3. wanted to help Harry?
- 4. became famous in school?
- 5. found something behind the panel?
- 6. slept in Harry's room years ago?

4 Circle the correct answer.

- 1. The prefect advises Harry to go to Harry's room / Mr Field's office.
- 2. Mr Field tells Harry about a priest / queen in the school many years ago.
- 3. After he talks to Mr Field, Harry is nervous / happy.
- 4. The police / boys come and examine the skeleton.
- 5. The Catholic priest buries the skeleton near the church / office.

Did you know?

Queen Elizabeth I ruled England from 1558 to 1603. At first, she wasn't cruel to Catholics. She started to persecute them after some Catholics tried to murder her and put her Catholic cousin, Mary, Queen of Scots, on the throne.