

MY FAVORITE PERSON

My Favorite Person

My favorite person is my mother. Her name is Ana, and she is forty years old. She is kind, funny, and very helpful. She has long, dark hair and brown eyes.

In her free time, she likes listening to music and watching movies. She also enjoys cooking for our family. Every day, she gets up at six o'clock. She takes a shower, has breakfast, and goes to work. In the evening, she comes home, prepares dinner, and talks with our family. She goes to bed at ten o'clock. I love my mother because she is always there for me.

Grammar Explanation: Present Simple

1. Verb TO BE: am / is / are

We use the verb to be to describe people and give information.

- I am friendly.
- He is tall.
- She is kind.
- We are happy.

Remember: I → am | He / She / It → is | You / We / They → are

2. Other verbs in the Present Simple

We use the Present Simple to talk about routines, habits, and likes.

- I work every day.
- She works every day.
- They play soccer.
- He plays soccer.

IMPORTANT: With he, she, and it, we usually add -s or -es to the verb.

work → works | play → plays | watch → watches | go → goes | study → studies

Negative sentences

With TO BE: She is not tired. / He isn't tired.

With other verbs: She doesn't like coffee. / He doesn't play tennis.

Use doesn't + base verb (not likes / plays).
