TASK 2

After doing the quiz, discuss the following questions with a partner. Try to use some of the quiz vocabulary.

1. What kind of school do you go to? Is it more academic, or does it focus on teaching skills for work? What are the pros and cons of both types of school?
2. Is there an outside space at your school for playing or spending time in during breaks? If so, what do people do there?
3. Did you need to pass exams to be able to study at your school? Will you have to take them to study at your next school? What do they test? How do you feel about them?
4. Do you have a place at your school like in question 5 of the quiz? How is it similar to or different from the picture? Where else can students eat lunch?
5. What is the name of the person who looks after your school's buildings, grounds and facilities? What are their responsibilities?
6. Do you study the subject described in question 8? How do you feel about it?
7. What do students typically do in the place shown in question 9?

TASK 3

Listen to a conversation between a student and a teacher and answer the questions.

1. What is Sam wearing at the start of the conversation?
2. What happened last week?
3. What does the teacher say about the importance of PE?
4. What is the teacher's solution?
5. What is wrong with the shorts?
6. Why does the teacher say that Sam doesn't need trainers?

TASK 4

Listen again and fill in the gaps with the missing words.

1. I'm _____ I've _____ my PE kit.
2. Yes, sorry. I _____ it at _____.
3. I'm having _____ _____ how you can forget it two lessons in a row!
4. I guess it just _____ my _____.
5. And I _____ _____ those other lessons either.
6. Pardon? Could you please _____ that?
7. I'm very sorry, it won't _____ _____.
8. This is the _____ and _____ box.
9. Then maybe next time you'll _____ to _____ your PE kit.
10. Come on, hurry up, _____ _____!

TASK 5

Listen to five students describing different subjects. Which subjects are they talking about?

1. .....
2. .....
3. .....
4. .....
5. .....

TASK 6

Role Play

With a partner, prepare and act out the following role play:

Student A: You are a new student at a new school. Speak to your classmate (Student B) and try to find out as much as you can about your new school. Ask about the school facilities, the teachers, the subjects and anything else you can think of.

Student B: There is a new student at your school (Student A). You have been attending the school for a long time. The new student will ask you questions about the school. Try to answer their questions and provide as much helpful information as you can.

TASK 7

Writing

Write a short description of your school. Include the following points:

the location/look of the building, facilities, events organised by the school, things you would change about your school

LIVEWORKSHEETS