Ben and Mia live in a small village. There is a green forest and a fast river near it. Ben and Mia go to school in the town. Sometimes, they walk on foot along the quiet path in the forest. Other times, they ride their donkey, Jack, who loves walking through the fields.

One sunny morning, Ben and Mia's dad joins them on their way to school. He shows them a small canoe by the river. Together, they go canoeing across the river. Along the way, they see birds in the trees and fish swimming below. They get to school very fast. Ben and Mia love the canoe – it's so much fun!
