

B2 Grammar Practice – Mixed Conditionals and Conditional Conjunctions

Topic: Travelling and Holidays Level: B2 – Upper-intermediate Focus: Zero, First, Second and Third Conditionals; unless, in case, as long as, provided that, when, whenever

Exercise – Sentence Transformation (15 sentences)

Rewrite the sentences using the word(s) in brackets. Do not change the original meaning. Make any necessary changes to the verb forms. Use the correct conditional structure.

1. If you don't book your flight well in advance, you will probably pay more.

2. You can join the guided tour, but only if you book your place in advance

3. I don't have enough money, so I can't afford a holiday in Japan.

4. We always check the local weather forecast before we go hiking.

5. We didn't leave early, so we missed our connecting flight.

6. Take a photocopy of your passport because you might lose the original.

7. If the weather is good tomorrow, we'll go on a boat trip.

8. I don't speak Spanish, so I find it difficult to communicate with local people

9. Every time tourists visit this museum, they have to leave their bags at the entrance.

10. You won't be allowed to board the plane if you don't have a valid passport.

11. She didn't check the visa requirements, so she wasn't allowed to enter the country.

12. You can borrow my suitcase, but you must return it before Friday.

13. If the train is delayed, we'll take a taxi to the airport.

14. We always buy travel insurance before travelling abroad.

15. They didn't book the hotel in advance, so they had to pay a much higher price.
