

A Visit to the School Nurse

On Monday morning, Rina goes to school, but she does not feel well. She has a headache and a stomachache. During English class, she feels tired and cannot finish her work.

Her teacher, Miss Anna, notices that Rina looks pale. "What's the matter, Rina?" she asks.

"I have a headache and a stomachache," Rina answers.

Miss Anna takes her to the school nurse. The nurse checks her temperature. Rina has a fever, too!

"You need to rest and drink plenty of water," says the nurse. "You also have to see a doctor."

Rina calls her mother. Her mother picks her up and takes her to the doctor. Rina wants to get better soon.
