

Exercício de Inglês: Present Perfect (Ever vs. Never)

Instruções: Complete as frases abaixo utilizando EVER ou NEVER.

Dica rápida:

- EVER: usado principalmente em perguntas para saber se algo aconteceu 'alguma vez na vida' (ex: Have you ever played golf?).
- NEVER: usado para frases afirmativas com sentido negativo ('nunca') (ex: I have never traveled to Japan).

Part A: Fill in the blanks with EVER or NEVER

01. Have you _____ eaten sushi before?
02. I have _____ been to France, but I would love to go.
03. Has she _____ seen a shooting star?
04. He has _____ tried extreme sports because he is very cautious.
05. Have they _____ visited the Louvre Museum in Paris?
06. This is the best pizza I have _____ eaten in my life!
07. She has _____ broken a bone in her body.
08. Have you _____ forgotten your password?
09. My grandfather has _____ used a smartphone.
10. Has Mark _____ spoken to the school principal?
11. Have you _____ won a prize in a contest?
12. We have _____ met anyone as kind as your sister.
13. I have _____ heard such a beautiful song.
14. Has it _____ snowed in your hometown?
15. They have _____ been late for class this semester.
16. Have you _____ ridden a horse on a beach?
17. She has _____ tasted papaya before today.
18. This is the most exciting movie I have _____ watched.
19. Has your brother _____ traveled abroad alone?
20. I have _____ lied to my parents.
21. He has _____ cooked dinner for his family.
22. Have you _____ stayed up all night to study?

23. Has anyone _____ told you that you look like an actor?

24. Have you _____ lost your house keys?

25. We have _____ seen such a clear night sky