

of: that's very kind of you, instead of

to: kudos to you, look forward to for: thank smb for, for the first time on: focus on, compliment on smth, insist on in: believe in, in return, in advance

No preposition: express smth, enter smth, discuss smth

Add - or a preposition

1. She is focused _____ improving her English vocabulary every day.
2. I look forward _____ hearing from you soon.
3. We spent an hour discussing _____ them after the meeting.
4. The manager will compliment _____ your excellent presentation during tomorrow's briefing.
5. My parents always taught me to believe _____ myself.
6. I visited London _____ the first time last summer.
7. Kudos _____ you for finishing such a challenging project!

8. Thank you _____ advance for your help and support.
9. As soon as he entered _____ the room, everyone stopped talking.
10. "That's very kind _____ you," she said with a grateful smile.
11. They insist _____ checking every detail before making a decision.
12. We decided to walk instead _____ taking a taxi.
13. It is sometimes difficult to express _____ my feelings clearly.
14. She chose tea instead _____ coffee this morning.
15. He offered me some useful advice, and _____ return I helped him with his report.
16. I thanked them _____ their patience and understanding.