

Invertebrates

Science - 3rd Primary

Name: _____

Date: _____

1 Identify and classify

Look at the animals below. Write their names and classify them into the correct group: arthropod, worm, echinoderm or mollusc.

Group: _____

Group: _____

Group: _____

Group: _____

Group: _____

Group: _____

Group: _____

Group: _____

2 True or false?

Read the sentences and write T (true) or F (false). Correct the false sentences.

1. Invertebrates are animals without a backbone. ☐
2. All invertebrates live on land. ☐
3. Arthropods have an exoskeleton. ☐
4. Worms have legs. ☐
5. Echinoderms live in the ocean. ☐
6. Molluscs always have a hard shell. ☐
7. Some molluscs, like snails, protect their bodies with a shell. ☐
8. Spiders are insects. ☐
9. Starfish are molluscs. ☐
10. Crabs are echinoderms. ☐

Correct the false sentences:

3 Match and label

Match each animal with its group and write a short characteristic. Use the words in the box.

exoskeleton

soft body

spines

shell

Group: _____

Characteristic: _____

Group: _____

Characteristic: _____

Group: _____

Characteristic: _____

Group: _____

Characteristic: _____