DAY 12: READING PART 5 + LISTENING PART 4

READING PART 5

1 Read and complete each sentence.

One day, a lion caught a small mouse. The mouse said, "Please let me go! I can help you one day." The lion laughed because he thought the mouse was too small to help him. But he let the mouse go. A few days later, some hunters caught the lion in a net. The mouse heard the lion and ran to help. He bit the ropes and helped the lion get free. The lion was very happy. The story shows that even small animals can help big ones. Being kind is always good.

1. The story teaches us that being _____ is always good.

2 Read and write.

Hello, my name's Bill. The weather is nice today. My brother and I are at the zoo. We can see many animals. The lions are roaring. The peacocks are dancing. My brother likes lions because they roar loudly. I like peacocks because they dance beautifully.

1. Bill and his brother are at the _____.
2. Bill's brother likes _____ because they roar loudly.
3. Bill likes peacocks because they _____ beautifully.

3 Read and write to complete the sentences.

Hello, I'm Mary. Today is Saturday. The weather is nice. My friends and I are at the campsite. Mike and Bill are putting up a tent. Anna is building a campfire. Lucy is singing songs. Tony is telling a story. I am taking a photo.

1. Mike and Bill are _____.
2. Anna is _____.
3. Mary is _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS