

LISTENING - PART 2

Example:

Now, listen, _____ and _____, I want to tell you about an _____ here at school.

What is the _____ ?

It's called _____. It's at _____ on Tuesday evenings.

Oh, I think I'd like to come to that.

What do _____ do at this _____ ?

Well, they can _____ about the _____, and they can _____, too.

Oh ... that _____ great!

And sometimes they go out when it's _____.

They _____ the _____ when there are no
_____ in the sky.

Do _____ have to _____ to the club meetings? _____ and _____ ?

No, but it's a _____ to bring a _____. It'll be _____ outside and they must be when they go out.

And what happens if it's a cloudy night and you can't see anything? Do the children watch TV programmes?

No Michael. But the club has some very interesting DVDs. So we watch those on nights like that.

Oh good! I'll enjoy that!

And a friend of mine from the university sometimes comes to talk about space in the future. His name's Mr Bailey.

How do you spell his surname?

B-A-I-L-E-Y. He's very famous! He's written lots of books.

LISTEN.
