

Subject	English	Topic	Listening Skill
Full Name		Grade & Section	Year 10

Part A

You will hear an IT lecturer giving a talk about data centres, which are places where electronic information is stored. Listen to the talk and complete the sentences in Part A. Write one or two words only in each gap. You will hear the talk twice.

Data centres

The inside a data centre can be surprising.

In case a data centre needs to expand, its design should be

Mobile data centres are being designed in order to reduce the chance of to business.

Keeping costs down

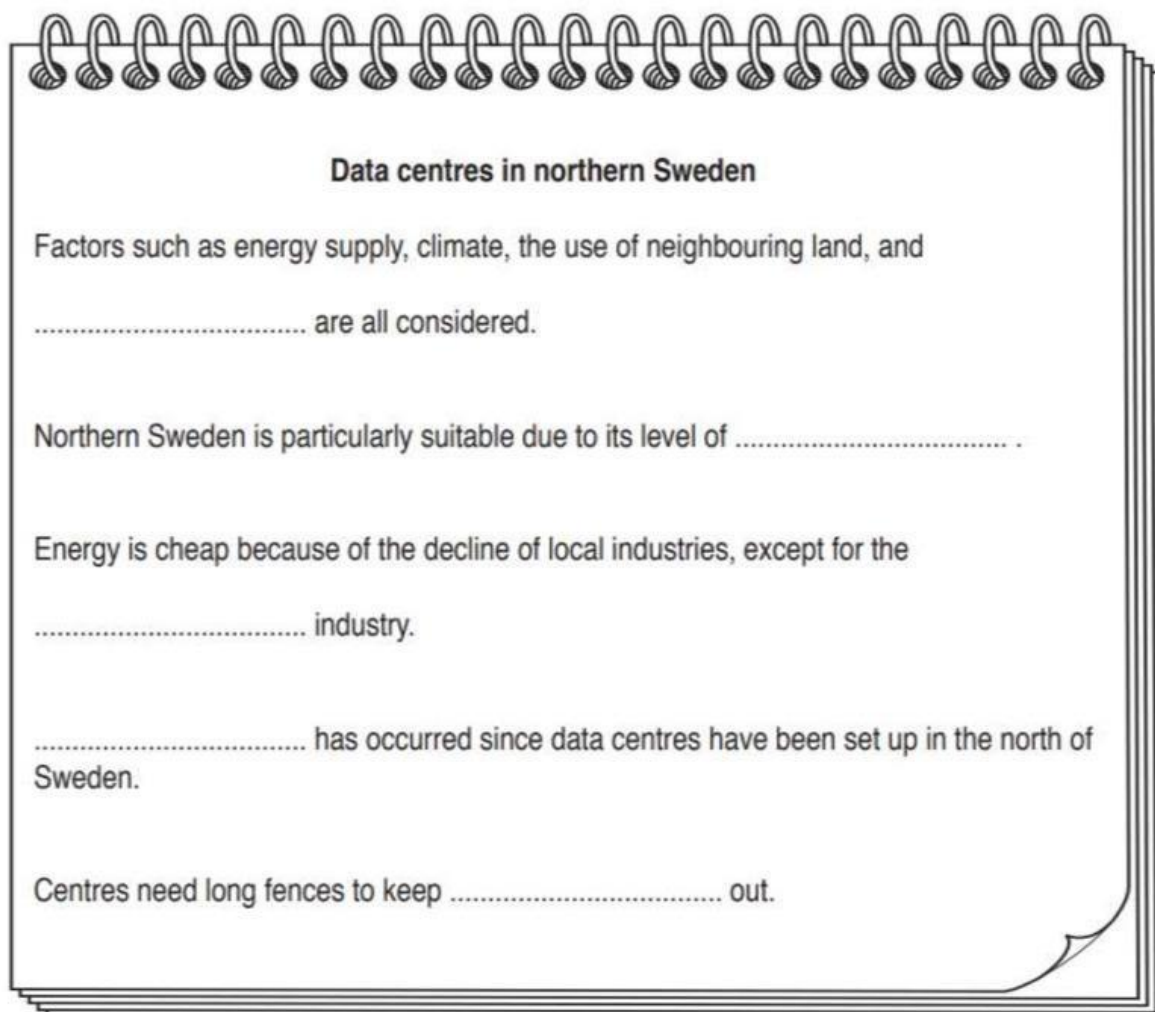

A '.....' data centre is one that does not need staff to run it.

Business developers like the fact that is generally not necessary in Arctic data centres.

[5]

Part B

Now listen to a conversation between two students about where data centres are located, and complete the sentences in Part B. Write one or two words only in each gap. You will hear the conversation twice.

Data centres in northern Sweden

Factors such as energy supply, climate, the use of neighbouring land, and
..... are all considered.

Northern Sweden is particularly suitable due to its level of

Energy is cheap because of the decline of local industries, except for the ..... industry.

..... has occurred since data centres have been set up in the north of Sweden.

Centres need long fences to keep out.

[5]

[Total: 10]