

CONDITIONALS AND CONJUNCTIONS

EXERCISE 2 – Read the situation: choose the conjunction and complete the verbs

For each sentence:

- Choose if, when, whenever or the correct conjunction (unless, in case, as long as, provided that)
- Complete the verbs in brackets.
- Use the context to identify whether the sentence expresses a habit, a future possibility, an unreal situation or a precaution.

1. The booking platform applies this rule automatically to every reservation: _____ a customer _____ (cancel) a non-refundable room, the hotel _____ (keep) the payment.
2. The school has set a strict condition for participation: you can join next month's trip _____ your parents _____ (sign) the consent form by Friday.
3. We haven't reserved seats yet. _____ we _____ (book) them today, we probably _____ (not / sit) together on tomorrow's train.
4. The railway has confirmed that the train will arrive at 10.15 tomorrow. _____ it _____ (arrive), our guide _____ (meet) us outside the station.
5. Download the city map before departure _____ you _____ (lose) your internet connection while exploring tomorrow. You may need the map even without a signal.
6. I don't speak German, so I had to rely on a translation app in Berlin yesterday. _____ I _____ (speak) German, I _____ (not / need) the app during that conversation.
7. We are outside the museum, but the tickets are on my desk at home. _____ I _____ (put) them in my backpack this morning, we _____ (not / stand) outside wondering what to do now.
8. During the summer holidays, you may borrow my power bank _____ you _____ (return) it before I leave for the airport on 2 August. That is my only condition.
9. The last bus left five minutes before we reached the stop. _____ we _____ (leave) the restaurant ten minutes earlier, we _____ (catch) it.
10. Our teacher follows the same security routine on every school trip: _____ she _____ (connect) to public Wi-Fi, she _____ (avoid) accessing the school's administrative accounts.

11. Tomorrow's walking tour will go ahead _____ the weather service _____ (issue) a severe storm warning. A warning would be the only reason to cancel it.
12. We cannot afford sleeper tickets for our journey next month. _____ they _____ (be) cheaper, we _____ (choose) the overnight train instead of the coach.
13. Take a screenshot of the hostel's address _____ your booking app _____ (crash) when you need it later. The screenshot is a backup.
14. Our flight leaves in four hours, but we have just discovered that our passports have expired. _____ we _____ (check) their expiry dates two months ago, we _____ (be able to) travel today.
15. I am usually too shy to ask strangers for help. _____ I _____ (be) more confident, I _____ (ask) someone for directions when we got lost in Madrid last Saturday.