

Saturday Morning Madness

Hi, I'm Leo! Saturdays are usually busy in my house. My parents work hard during the week, so on Saturday morning we all do some household chores.

Right now, everyone is doing something. My mum is in the kitchen – she is making breakfast and emptying the dishwasher. My dad is vacuuming the carpet in the living room because the dog leaves fur everywhere.

And what about my sister, Maya? Well, she is very lazy today! She usually tidies her bedroom on Saturdays, but at the moment she is lying on her bed and texting her friends. She says she is tired, but I know she just hates cleaning.

I am in my room right now. I am making my bed and washing my clothes. I want to finish quickly because my best friend is coming at 2 PM and we want to play video games together!
