Section 3: Grammar Check

1. I can see a beautiful rainbow right now!
(Explanation: "See" is a stative verb expressing sensory perception; use "can see" rather than present continuous).
2. Look at the board, please.
(Explanation: "Look" requires the preposition "at" when taking a direct visual object).
3. We were watching the football match when it started raining.
(Explanation: "Watch" is used for dynamic events, sports, or things in action over time).
