

1. Harry Potter is a fictional character created by J.K. Rowling. (FICTION)
2. Sir Christopher Wren was the famous architect who designed parts of Christ Church College. (ARCHITECTURE)
3. The police chased the criminal down a narrow alley between two buildings.
(ALLEYWAY)
4. Shakespeare's plays are famous works of English literature. (LITERARY)
5. Lewis Carroll was the pen-name of Charles Dodgson, the author of Alice in Wonderland. (PEN-NAME)
6. The view of the castle from the top of the hill was absolutely spectacular.
(SPECTACLE)
7. During the war, Highclere Castle was used as a hospital to care for wounded soldiers. (WOUND)
8. Many popular movies are an adaptation of a famous novel. (ADAPT)
9. Cortlandt Alley in New York is often depicted in films as a dangerous place filled with gangsters. (GANG)
10. He works at a well-known company and comes from a very respectable family.
(RESPECT)