

1 Choose the correct words.

- 1 I often feel anxious / loyal before exams.
- 2 It's annoying / jealous when a train is late.
- 3 My dad likes to make reliable / silly jokes.
- 4 Tom is reliable / annoying. He always does what he promises.
- 5 I'm a silly / thoughtful person. I like to think before I make a decision.
- 6 My mum is a jealous / sensible driver. I always feel safe in a car with her.

2 Complete the words.

- 1 Our teacher is so e _ g _ s _ y _ g _ o _ ing. He doesn't get angry if we don't do our homework.
- 2 I'm so j _ _ l _ _ s of your phone. I want one!
- 3 Linda isn't very s _ c _ _ bl _ . She doesn't enjoy meeting new people.
- 4 Emma is very t _ l _ nt _ d. She can sing, play the piano and write her own music.
- 5 I'm always l _ y _ l to my friends. I never lie to them.

3 Match words from Exercises 1 and 2 to the definitions.

- 1 worried and nervous (negative): anxious
- 2 always liking and supporting someone (positive):
.....
- 3 when you want something that someone else has (negative):
- 4 able to be trusted and believed (positive):
.....
- 5 always thinking about how you can help people (positive):
- 6 showing good judgement (positive):
- 7 having a natural ability to do something (positive):
.....
- 8 making you feel a bit angry (negative):

4 Choose the correct words.

- 1 This weather is really pleasant / unpleasant. I don't like it.
- 2 The book was so interesting / uninteresting that I finished it in two days.
- 3 Some people think that Friday 13th is lucky / unlucky and that bad things will happen.
- 4 I like / dislike vegetables. I eat them every day.
- 5 This car is totally reliable / unreliable. You won't have any problems with it.

5 Choose the correct options.

My friend Paul is very ¹ at the moment. He's ² because someone has taken his phone. He left it on a table in a café, and then went to buy a drink. When he came back, the phone had ³ He's usually quite an ⁴ person, so he didn't think that someone so ⁵ would come and take his phone. Some people think that Paul was ⁶ to leave his phone on the table in a busy café, and I ⁷ It's not a ⁸ thing to do. In a way, Paul's ⁹ because no one can use his phone without the password. But it's still really ¹⁰ that he can't call or message anyone at the moment.

- | | |
|---------------|------------------|
| 1 A happy | B unhappy |
| 2 A anxious | B jealous |
| 3 A appeared | B disappeared |
| 4 A easygoing | B thoughtful |
| 5 A pleasant | B unpleasant |
| 6 A reliable | B silly |
| 7 A agree | B disagree |
| 8 A loyal | B sensible |
| 9 A lucky | B unlucky |
| 10 A annoying | B uninteresting |