

Read the text below to answer the questions number 1-4

Last Saturday, Maya and her family went downtown. They wanted to visit the transportation museum, but the streets were crowded and there was a lot of traffic. Dad suggested taking the subway because it was cheaper and faster than a taxi. They arrived at the museum early, so they had time to look at the old trains. Maya wanted to buy a souvenir, but the toy train was expensive. After the visit, they went to the top floor of a skyscraper. The view was amazing, and Maya could see the whole city. They planned to go home before six because Maya had homework to finish.
