

THERE IS / THERE ARE / THERE WAS / THERE WERE

PAST TENSE

THERE WAS (singular noun)

There was an apple on the table.
There was a clock in the room.

THERE WERE (plural noun)

There were three apples on the table.
There were two clocks in the room.

PRESENT TENSE

THERE IS (singular noun)

There is an orange on the table.
There is a clock in the room.

THERE ARE (plural noun)

There are four bananas on the table.
There are three clocks in the room.

- 1- There _____ no taps in the kitchens in the past.
- 2- There _____ lots of dinosaurs in the worlds years ago.
- 3- There _____ the Moon on the sky now.
- 4- There _____ many e- mails in your box yesterday.
- 5- How many phones _____ there on the table in the morning?
- 6- There _____ lots of projects to finish today. I'm so busy now.
- 7- There _____ a noise in the garden last night. I was so scared.
- 8- There _____ a black cat on the tree now. Can you see it?
- 9- How many girls _____ there in your class last year?
- 10- There _____ a big truck on the road last night.
- 11- There _____ many people in the shopping centre last weekend.
- 12- There _____ an expensive car in front of your house now. Whose car is it?
- 13- There _____ a radio in our home long time ago.
- 14- There _____ lots of new dresses for you on your bed now.
- 15- There _____ a beautiful horse on that farm yesterday.
- 16- There _____ lots of dirty socks on your bed now. Please put them into the machine.
- 17- There _____ old photos on your mirror yesterday. Where are they now?
- 18- There _____ an interesting lamp on your desk. I love it!
- 19- There _____ strange people in your party last night.
- 20- There _____ many new songs on my listen now. Would you like to listen?