Focus: Scanning the questions to decide which ones to answer first

It is essential to make the best use of your time in Part 7. Looking at the questions before you read will help you to find exactly what information you need. This will also help you to decide which questions to answer first. In this unit you will concentrate on the type of question you should first answer – specific information questions.

Test tipLook at the questions first

To save time, do not start reading the passage until you know exactly what you need to find.

Test tipAnswer questions in the most efficient order

Some question types are easier to answer than others. Answering the easiest questions first will give you information that will help you answer the difficult ones more quickly.

1 Test tactic: Answer easier questions first

Look at the list of question types below. The numbers indicate the order in which you should do them to make best use of your time.

These are the easiest and quickest to find the answer for. Do these first.

- According to the author, who will use x?
- Where did x come from?
- Who will benefit from this change?

These should be answered quickly. If you don't know the word or words, guess and move on.

Doing the previous question types first will help prepare you for these.

- Why is Mr. Jones writing this letter?
- What can be said/inferred about...?
- Who might read this advertisement?

4. Specific information (negative)

These can be the most time-consuming. Leave them till last, when you may have already got information to help you with the answers.

Summer program refund policy

The effective date of the withdrawal/cancellation is the date the withdrawal notice is received by the center, regardless of the date the participant stopped attending the class.

Withdrawal requests from all registered courses must be made before the second class is held. If the request is received 5 business days prior to the first class, the amount refunded will be the full amount, less the refund administration fee ($25.00). If the request is received after the first class, but before the second class, the amount refunded will be the full amount, less the cost of the first class and less the admin fee ($25.00). From the second lesson onwards, no refunds/credits will be issued.

If there is a medical reason for the request, it must be received prior to the mid-point of the program. Refunds for sports and fitness programs will NOT be processed until ALL gym and pool passes have been returned.

Please note that advising an instructor or not attending a program will not constitute a notice of withdrawal.

Cash/check remittances will be refunded by check. Please allow our office 4 to 6 weeks to process your refund. Credit card refunds will go back on the original card.
