Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the correct answer to each of the questions from 36 to 40.

In Viet Nam, a market is a trading place, but many markets are not only about buying and selling things. They reflect the life of the community. A traditional market is a social gathering point for people of all ages; it is a new and exciting experience for children, a trading place for local craftsmen, and a chance for young people to meet. People go to traditional markets not only to buy and sell things but also to eat, drink, play games, and socialize. For example, if you go to Sa Pa Market, which is in the highlands in the north of Viet Nam, you can see people wearing their nicest clothes and spending all day at the market. They buy things, play the flute, dance, and sing. This is also a time to meet, make friends, or look for a lover. That is why this kind of gathering is also called “love market”. Some other countryside markets in the Mekong Delta are held on boats. Most of the goods are sold at floating markets. The most exciting time is in the early morning, when boats arrive and lots of agricultural products are loaded onto them.
