A few years ago, I bought a house by a lake near a forest. The area was a little spooky, especially at night. I used to work long hours then, so I went home late in the evening. One night, I was going back home when the strangest thing happened. I came around a corner and to my surprise, a strange creature was standing in the middle of the road. I'm sure it was frightened by the car's lights because all of a sudden, it disappeared into the water. I was lucky I didn't hit it. I stopped the car but I was really scared so I didn't get out. I just drove home and went back with my camera the next day to look for clues, but I couldn't find anything. All of my friends thought it was one of my ghost stories but, amazingly, I noticed a story in the newspaper about a strange creature. The picture on the front page was not clear enough to prove anything for sure, but to me it was obvious. It was the same creature!
