Reading

6. Read and write the correct answers. There is one example. (one point each)

Hi Grandma,

I'm very excited because yesterday we had auditions for our school play.

I was scared, but I got a part in it.

I'm not going to be a boy in the play,

I'm going to be a dragon. But I have to speak because I'm going to be a friendly dragon that can talk! I've already started learning the words. It's going to take a long time!

This evening, we have our first practice at school. We're going to read the play from beginning to end together. It starts at seven o'clock and finishes at nine. I'm going to be really tired after that!

Family and friends can see the play on 15th June. I hope you can come! Everyone in the play is going to get three tickets for their families, so you can have one. The teacher is going to give them to us on Monday next week.

See you this Saturday when you come for dinner. I can tell you all about it then.

Love from George

I went shopping today as you asked me to, but I lost the list that you wrote for me. I couldn't remember how much of everything you wanted. Here's what I got.

There were lots of nice sweets. I bought three bags – one for you, one for Mum and one for me. I couldn't find any large bottles of water, so I bought two small ones. I know you wanted some vegetables, but I couldn't remember which. I bought potatoes, onions and carrots – a kilo of each. The strawberry jam was very cheap, so I bought two kilos of that. I got a small bag of flour – it's half a kilo. I also got a watermelon and a mango.

I hope that's all OK!
