

Had

We use had to talk about possession in the past.

Example: I had a blue bike when I was 9.

Affirmative

I had
You had
We had
They had
She had
He had
It had negative

I didn't have
You didn't have
We didn't have
They didn't have
She didn't have
He didn't have
It didn't have

Question form

Did you have...?
Did they have...?
Did we have...?
Did I have...?
Did it have...?
Did she have...?
Did he have...?

Yes – No questions have past form.

Did you have a car? Yes, I did. No, I didn't.

Did they have a car? Yes, they did. No, they didn't.

Did we have a car? Yes, we did. No, we didn't.

Did I have a car? Yes, I did. No, I didn't.

Did it have a window? Yes, it did. No, it didn't.

Did she have a car? Yes, she did. No, she didn't.

Did he have a car? Yes, he did. No, he didn't.

Yes - No questions of have past form Had.

Example: Did you have a tv when you were 9? Yes, I did.

1. Did John have a car? No,
2. Did you have a Nintendo? Yes,
3. Did Peter have a cat? Yes,
4. Did they have a big house? Yes,
5. Did Mary have a dron? No,
6. Did the computer have a large screen? Yes,
7. Did the house have air conditioning? No,
8. Did you have a parrot? Yes,
9. Did you best friend have an Xbox? Yes,
10. Did your dad have a guitar? Yes