

Easter in Britain

beginning starts sprinkled Lent Ash preceded Palm

Easter is by forty days of Shrove Tuesday is the last day before the period of fasting which on Ash Wednesday. Traditionally, it is the time of enjoyment and eating pancakes, it is often called Pancake Day. Wednesday is a very solemn day when ash is on the heads of members of the congregation. The Sunday before Easter is called Sunday. On this day small crosses made of palm are given to the worshippers. This is the of the Holly Week.

coins Maundy place custom gives

A very interesting is maintained on Thursday, known as Thursday, when the sovereign some elderly people presents of Maundy money (..... which are specially minted for that occasion). The number of the coins equals sovereign's age in years and the presentation usually takes in a selected cathedral city.

crucifixion followed bank hot

Maundy Thursday is by Good Friday. It is celebrated as a Holiday. People do not go to work on that day and eat the so called cross buns containing currants and marked with a cross (this symbol remains one of the of Christ).

presents hunts tradition fun Sunday gather cards eggs chocolate

The central day of Easter is Easter, the Christian feats of the Resurrection of Jesus. On this day Christians follow the old Of eating Easter Many families together at dinner and organize egg Children have a lot of looking for dyed eggs hidden in the house or in the garden. Expect the Eggs, rabbits and chicks for children are not given on Easter. People usually confine themselves to sending Easter to their friends and family.

The day after Easter is known as Easter Monday. It is the last day of the Easter celebration and it is regarded as the beginning of the summer tourist season.

