

Sharks saved my life

A. VOCABULARY: describing extreme experiences

Complete the sentences using the words and expressions in the box. Use each expression once.

overcome my fear · climbing · adrenaline rush · in good shape · scuba diving put myself in danger · addicted to · suffer injuries · paragliding · out of your mind · kayaking · snowboarding · bungee jumping

1. I want to try _____ because I'd love to explore the underwater world.
2. You need to be _____ to climb a high mountain.
3. Some people love _____ because they enjoy paddling through rivers.
4. My biggest dream is to try _____ and fly over beautiful landscapes.
5. I'd like to _____ of heights so I can try the Ferris wheel.
6. Extreme sports can give people an incredible _____.
7. People who do dangerous activities without safety equipment may _____.
8. I don't want to _____ just to impress my friends.
9. My brother is _____ adventure sports. He tries something new every year.
10. You must be _____ to jump from a bridge with an elastic cord!
11. I want to try _____ on the mountains during my winter vacation.
12. My cousin loves _____ and spends weekends climbing rocks.
13. I'd love to try _____, but I'm terrified of jumping from high places.

B. GRAMMAR: to + infinitive

Put the words in the correct order to make sentences.

1 job / I / to / disappointed / get / not / was / the .

2 sharks / was / learn / interesting / it / to / about.

3 our cars / you / tell us / park / where / can / to?

4 wear / is / not / dangerous / to / a seat belt / it.

5 her / relax / to / she / a bath / help / took.

6 the bus station / went / to meet / aunt / to / they / their.

Correct the sentences.

1 They wanted buy him a nice birthday present.

They wanted to buy him a nice birthday present.

2 He asked me how getting to the airport.

3 She was annoyed to not receive an invitation to his wedding.

4 They went to the supermarket for buy some food for dinner.

5 We couldn't remember which bus catching to the airport.