

IELTS VOCABULARY WORKSHEET - Fire Safety and Emergency Procedures

Name: _____ Class: _____ Date: _____

Part 1: Fire Safety and Emergency Procedures

WORD BANK

flammable · fire warden · sprinkler system · fire crew · escape route · handheld fire extinguisher · obstacle · corridor · evacuation point · fire drill · alarm system · reluctant · fire department · run out

1. The school conducts a _____ every three months to ensure that students know how to respond to an emergency.
2. During the evacuation, students were instructed not to run along the _____ because it could cause accidents.
3. The _____ checked every classroom to make sure nobody was left inside the burning building.
4. A modern _____ can detect smoke and immediately warn everyone inside the building.
5. A teacher used a _____ to put out a small fire before it spread to nearby furniture.
6. The automatic _____ activated when the temperature in the room rose above a dangerous level.
7. Some employees were _____ to leave their personal belongings behind during the evacuation.
8. The _____ arrived within minutes and immediately began rescuing people trapped on the upper floors.
9. All employees should be familiar with the nearest _____ in case the main entrance is blocked.
10. A large wooden cabinet became an _____ that prevented people from leaving the building quickly.
11. The local _____ organised a public awareness campaign about preventing household fires.
12. After leaving the building, everyone must gather at the designated _____ so that attendance can be checked.
13. Petrol and certain cleaning products are highly _____ and must be stored away from heat sources.

Part 2: Health, Technology and Economics

WORD BANK

manufacture • malaria • insecticide • economic output • staggering • synthetic • sponsor • improvement • interest-free loan • alternative • reliable

14. In many tropical countries, _____ remains a serious public health concern because it is transmitted by infected mosquitoes.

15. Researchers have developed _____ materials that can replace natural fibres in the production of protective clothing.

16. Farmers sometimes use _____ to control insects that damage crops, although excessive use may harm the environment.

17. There has been a significant _____ in public health services following increased government investment.

18. Solar energy is increasingly regarded as a sustainable _____ to fossil fuels.

19. Investment in education and infrastructure can contribute to higher _____ over the long term.

20. A multinational company agreed to _____ a research project aimed at developing affordable medical equipment.

21. Several factories _____ protective equipment for hospitals and emergency services.

22. The organisation offered an _____ to small businesses affected by the natural disaster.

23. The cost of rebuilding the city after the earthquake was _____, reaching several billion dollars.