II. READING (15)

Every Friday afternoon, Maya goes shopping at the organic food store near her campus. First, she prepares a shopping list on her mobile phone so she can stick strictly to her weekly budget. She usually buys organic apples, spinach, milk, and whole-wheat bread. Today, fresh strawberries and blueberry yogurt are on a special promotion, so she picks up extra packs of them. After gathering all her healthy groceries, she stops by the beverage counter to buy a bottle of fresh fruit juice for her sister. Finally, she taps her contactless card at the payment terminal and walks back home.

Questions:

1. Which mode of transportation does Maya use for her shopping trip?
 - a. She walks because the store is near her campus
 - b. She rides her bicycle to carry heavy shopping bags
 - c. She takes a public train route
 - d. She hires a private driver
2. Why are there more strawberries and yogurt in Maya's basket today?
 - a. She is hosting a large party at her house
 - b. The store is running a special promotion on them
 - c. She forgot to buy whole-wheat bread
 - d. She wants to start a juice business
3. What conclusion can be drawn about Maya as a consumer?
 - a. She is a thoughtful planner who sticks to her budget
 - b. She spends money recklessly without thinking
 - c. She rarely pays attention to promotional items
 - d. She dislikes using technology for daily tasks
4. Why does Maya purchase a bottle of fresh fruit juice before leaving?
 - a. To drink it immediately on her way home
 - b. To bring a thoughtful drink for her sister
 - c. Because it was listed as a free gift
 - d. It was required to enter the organic store
5. Does Maya rely on physical cash to complete her transaction?
 - a. Yes, she gives paper bills to the cashier
 - b. No, she completes the transaction with a contactless card
 - c. Yes, she pays using paper store vouchers
 - d. No, she leaves without making any payment

IV. WRITING (25)

Write a short essay paragraph (5–6 sentences) describing your typical weekend routine as a university student. Make sure to: Use the Simple Present Tense correctly. Include time adverbs and sequence markers (e.g., first, after that, usually, then, finally)! Minimal 100 words.
