

Name _____

One-Syllable Words

Sometimes the letters c and g have a soft sound. The letter c can make a soft /s/ sound. The letter g can make a soft /j/ sound.

cell nice page
gem badge

A. Read the words in each row. Underline the word with a soft c or g in each row. Write the word on the line. Circle the letter c or g that makes the soft /s/ or /j/ sound.

- | | | | |
|-----------|--------------|--------|--------------|
| 1. cut | since | cat | since |
| 2. ridge | gave | grid | _____ |
| 3. grain | grape | fringe | _____ |
| 4. face | fact | fair | _____ |
| 5. clamp | cane | cage | _____ |
| 6. crease | cease | crest | _____ |

B. Underline the word with a soft c or g sound in each sentence. Write the word on the line.

- Stan made a tasty meal with rice. rice
- Can you nudge him so he wakes up? _____
- Lin has some change to pay the bill. _____
- We went ice skating on the pond. _____
- The window pane has a smudge on it. _____
- We will sing and dance in the class play. _____