Module 2 Review

Directions: Use the words from the word box to fill in the blanks for each sentence below. Each word will be used exactly twice.

1. The green vine climbed up the wooden fence by wrapping its curly _____ tightly around the posts.
2. The _____ judge listened carefully to both sides before making a final decision in the courtroom.
3. The police officer asked the _____ to describe exactly what the runaway car looked like.
4. After hiking through the thick burrs and muddy bushes, the dog's coat was completely _____.
5. The campers _____ to build a campfire in the pouring rain, but the logs were too wet to light.
6. A _____ package with no return address or name was left on our front porch this afternoon.
7. Before checking your luggage at the airport, make sure all the zippers and _____ are closed tightly.
8. The loud chirping of the birds outside my window provided a cheerful _____ to the start of the day.
9. It was hard for the excited boy to _____ his joy when his parents surprised him with a new bicycle.
10. The bully showed total _____ for the school rules by laughing when the teacher asked him to sit down.

Word Box

tendrils	restrain
contempt	awakening
mysterious	attempted
presiding	fastenings
matted	witness

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Mini-Lesson: A prefix is a word part added to the front of a word. The prefixes un-, non-, and dis- mean "not" or the opposite of something.

Example: unable means not able.

1. I love reading about real history, so my favorite books are _____.
   a. nonfiction
   b. untied
   c. dislike
2. The power went out during the storm, so we were _____ to turn on the lights.
   a. discovered
   b. unable
   c. non-food
3. The rain fell _____ for hours without stopping for even a single minute.
   a. unreasonable
   b. disagree
   c. nonstop
4. The hikers explored the deep jungle and _____ an ancient, hidden cave.
   a. discovered
   b. unable
   c. nonfiction

Mini-Lesson: Antonyms and Synonyms

- A synonym means the same thing (like glad and happy).
- An antonym means the opposite thing (like sad and happy).

1. My brother and I always argue. We _____ on what game to play, which is the antonym (opposite) of agreeing.
   a. windy
   b. easily
   c. disagree
2. The green frog felt wet and _____ when I held it gently in my hand.
   a. slimy
   b. easily
   c. disagree
3. Hold tightly onto your umbrella because it is very _____ outside today!
   a. slimy
   b. windy
   c. disagree
4. Because Max studied all week, he _____ passed his spelling quiz. This is a synonym (same) for effortlessly.
   a. easily
   b. windy
   c. slimy

LIVEWORKSHEETS