

GAME CHANGERS

LISTEN AND PICK THE RIGHT OPTION

1. Why did he want to become a referee?
 - a. His father was a referee.
 - b. He liked sport, but wasn't good at it.
 - c. He always liked the idea.
2. What was the most exciting match he ever refereed?
 - a. His first professional match.
 - b. He can't choose just one.
 - c. Real Madrid against Barcelona.
3. The worst experience he ever had as a referee was when _____ attacked him.
 - a. A player.
 - b. A woman.
 - c. A child.
4. Why does he think there is more cheating in football today?
 - a. Because football is big business.
 - b. Because the referees are worse.
 - c. Because footballers are better at cheating.
5. How does he say footballers often cheat?
 - a. They fall over when no one has touched them.
 - b. They accept money to lose matches.
 - c. They touch the ball with their hands.

COMPLETE USING PAST SIMPLE, CONTINUOUS OR PERFECT

Russian cross-country skier Anton Gafarov

¹ was competing (compete) at the Sochi Winter Olympics in 2014. He ² _____ (do) well in the race when he ³ _____ (fall) and ⁴ _____ (damage) his left ski. Soon after that, he ⁵ _____ (fall) again. He realized that his ski ⁶ _____ (break) into two pieces. He ⁷ _____ (try) to continue on one ski when suddenly the Canadian ski coach, Justin Wadsworth, ⁸ _____ (run) out of the crowd and ⁹ _____ (replace) Gafarov's broken ski with a spare one that he ¹⁰ _____ (bring) for his own team. Gafarov ¹¹ _____ (finish) the race in front of his home crowd.

