

Match (drag & drop) the following idioms and their descriptions with the pictures A-I.

let your hair down break the ice travel light go window shopping be in two minds learn (something) by heart be in hot water a piece of cake work against the clock looking at goods in shop windows without buying anything be in trouble/difficulty in a hurry to finish something before a particular time having two opinions or ideas about something something you can do easily memorize something and then be able to say it from memory do/say something to relieve tension in communication relaxing/having fun

pack very few things

when you go somewhere

