Possessive Pronouns Winter Vocabulary

Fill in the blanks with: my, your, her, his, its, our, or their.

1. Anna has got a warm scarf. _____ scarf is blue.
2. Tom has got a new pair of gloves. _____ gloves are black.
3. I have got a winter coat. _____ coat is very warm.
4. We have got two snowboards. _____ snowboards are red.
5. You have got a nice woolly hat. _____ hat is green.
6. The children have got snow boots. _____ boots are wet.
7. Lucy has got a hot chocolate. _____ hot chocolate is delicious.
8. Jack has got a blue umbrella. _____ umbrella is big.
9. My friends have got new jackets. _____ jackets are yellow.
10. I have got a pair of warm socks. _____ socks are white.
11. You have got a beautiful winter sweater. _____ sweater is pink.
12. The cat is sitting near the fireplace. _____ paws are cold.
13. My sister and I have got ice skates. _____ ice skates are new.
14. Peter has got a thick blanket. _____ blanket is soft.
15. Emma has got a pair of snow boots. _____ snow boots are brown.
16. You and your brother have got sleds. _____ sleds are fast.
17. I have got a warm winter hat. _____ hat is purple.
18. The dog has got a little winter coat. _____ coat is red.
19. We have got a snowman in the garden. _____ snowman has a carrot nose.
20. David and Mark have got thick scarves. _____ scarves are grey.

LIVEWORKSHEETS